

Hello again from Quarantine! I pray that you are doing well and that you aren't losing your mind being stuck at home. I know that many of you like me are ready to get back to some normalcy. It's important that we move forward with patience and wisdom.

"To be spiritually minded is life and peace". God tells us about Himself in the bible, He describes Himself in this way ..... "He is Spirit ..... and those that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit". I heard someone say once, that we are not physical beings having spiritual experiences, but rather Spiritual being having physical experiences. We were made in the image of our Lord. Sin caused a brokenness in the world that we continue to struggle with until this day. It was that introduction of going after the flesh, rather than following the guidance of God.

To be mindful of God, obedient, to walk in the things of the Spirit ..... is life..... that's where true life is found. That's where the life that is full is found. That's where true peace is found. It only makes sense if you think about it. Walking with our creator and in His ways, is where we find our home. Everywhere and everything else is strange land. We often find ourselves in that strange land trying to make it home. But real peace can't be found there, a full life can't be found. We are born into a this world in a physical body that wants to go it's way, but we have a soul birthed from God that will only truly experience peace with Him. We are strangers in this land.

Trying to fit into this world is like trying to put a square peg in a round hole. We were made to walk with God. That it ..... trying to walk in the world in the world ways ..... you just can't find real peace.

God bless -- Pastor

The fruit of the Spirit is peace.

To be spiritually minded is life and peace.

God hath called us to peace. — Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. — The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. — Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places. — Whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Great peace have they which love thy law.
